What You'll Need

- Adobe Photoshop
- A basic understanding of Photoshop
- A few minutes of your time

Step 1: Create a New Document

The first step is to create a new document in Photoshop. To do this, go to File > New. In the New Document dialog box, set the width and height of the document to 500px by 500px. Then, click OK.

Step 2: Create a New Layer

Next, you need to create a new layer. To do this, go to Layer > New > Layer. In the New Layer dialog box, name the layer "Firework" and click OK.

Step 3: Select the Brush Tool

Now, you need to select the Brush Tool. To do this, press B on your keyboard. Then, click on the Brush Picker in the Options bar and select a soft, round brush.

Step 4: Set the Brush Color

Next, you need to set the brush color. To do this, click on the Color Picker in the Options bar and select a bright color, such as red, yellow, or blue.

Step 5: Start Painting

Now, you can start painting your firework burst. To do this, simply click and drag your mouse on the canvas. As you paint, the brush will create a series of small dots. These dots will eventually form the firework burst.

Step 6: Create a New Frame

Once you have finished painting your firework burst, you need to create a new frame. To do this, go to Window > Timeline. Then, click on the Create New Frame icon in the Timeline panel.

Step 7: Move the Playhead

Next, you need to move the playhead to the beginning of the timeline. To do this, click on the first frame in the Timeline panel.

Step 8: Duplicate the Firework Layer

Now, you need to duplicate the Firework layer. To do this, go to Layer > Duplicate Layer. In the Duplicate Layer dialog box, name the new layer "Firework 2" and click OK.

Step 9: Move the Firework 2 Layer

Next, you need to move the Firework 2 layer. To do this, click on the Move Tool in the Tools panel. Then, click and drag the Firework 2 layer to the right. You should now have two firework bursts on your canvas.

Step 10: Create a New Frame

Once you have moved the Firework 2 layer, you need to create a new frame. To do this, go to Window > Timeline. Then, click on the Create New Frame icon in the Timeline panel.

Step 11: Move the Playhead

Next, you need to move the playhead to the second frame in the timeline. To do this, click on the second frame in the Timeline panel.

Step 12: Duplicate the Firework 2 Layer

Now, you need to duplicate the Firework 2 layer. To do this, go to Layer > Duplicate Layer. In the Duplicate Layer dialog box, name the new layer "Firework 3" and click OK.

Step 13: Move the Firework 3 Layer

Next, you need to move the Firework 3 layer. To do this, click on the Move Tool in the Tools panel. Then, click and drag the Firework 3 layer to the left. You should now have three firework bursts on your canvas.

Step 14: Create a Loop

Finally, you need to create a loop so that the animation will repeat itself. To do this
