

No Job for Man: A Memoir of Triumph Over Disability and Hardship

No Job for Man is a captivating memoir that chronicles the extraordinary life of author Andrew Lucas, a man who overcame seemingly insurmountable obstacles to achieve personal and professional success.

Throughout its pages, Lucas recounts his childhood struggles with cerebral palsy, a condition that left him with limited mobility and speech difficulties. Undeterred, he refused to let his disability define him, pursuing education and athletics with unwavering determination.

As a young man, Lucas faced prejudice and discrimination, but he remained steadfast in his pursuit of a meaningful career. He navigated countless employment rejections until a chance encounter with a supportive mentor opened the door to a job in the finance industry.
