True Stories from the Front Lines of Wildlife Law Enforcement

Vermont Wild Adventures of Fish & Game Wardens: Volume Four is a thrilling collection of true stories from the front lines of wildlife law enforcement. From tracking down poachers to rescuing lost hikers, these wardens risk their lives to protect Vermont's natural resources and the people who enjoy them.

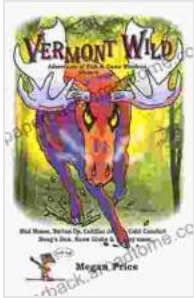

In this volume, you'll read about:

- A warden who tracks down a group of poachers who have been illegally killing deer
- A warden who rescues a lost hiker who is stranded in the wilderness
- A warden who investigates a case of animal cruelty
- A warden who helps to enforce the state's fishing and hunting regulations

These stories are a testament to the dedication and bravery of Vermont's fish and game wardens. They are the men and women who work tirelessly to protect our state's wildlife and natural resources.
